Doylestown Friends suffered the loss of Elizabeth "Betty" Todd this past October. Yardley Friends suffer the loss of Christine Moyes who passed on November 13th. Wrightstown friends suffer the loss of Charly Wilson who passed on December 2nd.

CHRISTMAS CAME EARLY FOR CHANDLER HALL

On December 10th, 2009, Christmas came early to Chandler Hall thanks to two elves from the Chandler Hall Auxiliary. Edwina Asch (Fallsington Meeting) and Elsie Wright (Makefield Meeting), President and Treasurer, respectively, presented Lynette Killen CEO with a check for $25,000. The Auxiliary, organized before Chandler Hall even opened its doors, have been key supporters of Chandler Hall over the years.

OPEN HOUSE WRIGHTSTOWN FRIENDS NURSERY SCHOOL

On Saturday, January 9 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Nursery School teachers will be available to answer your questions and to present the Schoolhouse facilities located on the grounds of the historic Wrightstown Friends Meeting, 535 Durham Road (Rt. 413), Wrightstown, PA. Classroom visits during times when school is in session can be scheduled during this event. Wrightstown Friends Nursery School (WFNS) is a small Quaker school under the care of Wrightstown Friends Meeting. For over 30 years, the school has helped children develop important social and academic skills through cooperative games, imaginary play and multi-sensory experiences. Our curriculum includes numerous field trips, several community service projects, many art activities and an interactive music program provided by Doylestown musician and composer, Cathy Block.

WFNS offers a 5-day morning program (9 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.) and a 3-day afternoon program (Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday, 12:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.). There are approximately 18 children and three teachers in both classes; there is an additional teacher's aide in the afternoon program. Available openings are limited and vary each year depending on the number of both returning students and siblings who are applying for the first time. This coming year, we anticipate that there will be a few spaces available in our morning class and additional spaces in our afternoon class. Due to the highly structured nature of our morning program, children should be at least four-years-old at the start of the school year, with the anticipation that they will enter kindergarten in September, 2011. Children in the afternoon class should be three-years-old by late spring, 2010. All students must be toilet trained. WFNS can sometimes be flexible about a child's chronological age when there is enough school readiness in place to ensure a joyful and successful school experience.

To schedule a classroom visit if you are unable to attend the Open House, or to request additional information, please call 215-968-9900 during school hours (8:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.) or 215-322-1026 at other times. You can also visit the school website at www.wrightstownfriends.org. Parents and children are welcome to attend.

Jean Dinneen, WFNS Director

DOYLESTOWN PEACE VIGIL

The Peace Vigil sponsored by Doylestown Meeting is now in its ninth year. Recently our numbers have dropped due to some deaths and illnesses.

Unfortunately at the present time there seems to be more need than ever to witness the Quaker testimony that peace is not brought about by war.

There is great need for more support, and we ask Friends to consider taking part. Some who are too busy to get to the vigil every week are committing to come once a month. The vigil is every Tuesday, 6.00 to 7.00 pm at the Junction of State and Main in Doylestown. We have signs.

Ken Johnson, clerk, Doylestown Peace and Social Concerns Committee.

FINDING GOD IN A DOG

Anyone who knows our family will agree we've become obsessed with dogs, particularly our own. My daughter has channeled her passion into dog obedience shows; my husband thinks his doggiebabytalk is a secret. Perhaps the most eye-raising development is that my take on Quaker testimonies is now intertwined with my impression of how dogs view the world. Yes, it's true, Quaker testimonies are the theological foundation of the Religious Society of Friends and, yes, it's also true I'm neither a theologian nor a pet psychic. So you've been warned about my spin on things.

The Testimony of Community

This Quaker's Interpretation : We're all connected, so why not live that way?

A Dog's Reality : When I sniff this tree, I can pinpoint who was here when -- and that makes me happy.

The Peace Testimony

One Quaker's Opinion : Peace -- non-violence - is our shot at a global future.

If You Ask a Dog : Encouragement, treats, and consistent behavior get way better results than a smack with a newspaper.

The Testimony of Integrity

A Quaker Says : It's way too confusing to live a lie.

Dogs Know : You can't fake unconditional love.

The Testimony of Service

One Quaker Viewpoint : Helping others is a highlight on the path to being a better person.

Dogs Tell Us : Therapy dogs can help kids learn to read and be more confident because dogs listen without judgment.

The Stewardship Testimony

A Quaker's Goal : Make choices that will make you proud 200 years from today.

The Dog's Unspoken Request : Pick up that dog poop, please.

The Testimony of Simplicity

A Quaker Thinks : Life isn't about stuff.

What a Dog Knows : Nothing pleases a dog more than when you come home.

The Equality Testimony

A Quaker's Central Belief : There's God in everyone.

All Dogs Probably Agree: Every person's smell is appealing at all times.

BUCKINGHAM MEETING PRESENTS FILM SERIES

“RETHINK AFGHANISTAN”

Wednesday, January 13 at 7:30PM

This 2009 documentary is about the ongoing war in Afghanistan. It features experts from Afghanistan, the U.S., and Russia discussing critical issues like military escalation, how escalation will affect Pakistan and the surrounding region, the cost of war, casualties, and the rights of Afghan women. In Afghanistan, the director met with and interviewed members of Afghanistan’s parliament, bloggers, women’s rights organizations, and groups committed to the peace movement. The ultimate goal of this documentary campaign is to raise the level of public discourse, compel people to ask key questions about the war, and urge Congress to hold oversight hearings. For more information on the campaign, visit www.rethinkafghanistan.org.

COLLECTION YIELDS 123 BIKES

On Saturday afternoon October 10 the third annual used bicycle collection at Pennswood Village brought in 123 bikes and three sewing machines for Bikes for the World!

Pennswood Village thanks the many churches, synagogues, and Friends Meetings that helped to publicize this event.

Each bicycle was “processed” by volunteers in preparation for shipment overseas and loaded onto a truck to be taken to a storage facility near Washington, DC. From there they will be loaded into a shipping container on their way to a needy area in the developing world where they will be reconditioned and distributed at low cost to provide for the transportation needs of the working poor.

The expected final destination for the bikes is an organization in Costa Rica called Fundacion Integral Campesina (FINCA Costa Rica). FINCA Costa Rica since 2005 has already received 6,323 bikes from Bikes for the World, benefiting low-income individuals in rural communities throughout that country. Interviews with two Costa Rican beneficiaries can be seen in a brief video story available at www.america.gov/bikes.html.

A total of 37 volunteers put in an estimated 162 hours on this project. Donations, totaling $1,248, were received to offset part of the shipping costs.

The hard work of the volunteers and the response of all who donated bikes and sewing machines to this worthy cause combined to make this event a great success.
