ATTENTION QUAKER PARENTS!!

Are you comfortable enough in your Quaker skin to raise Quaker children with joy and confidence? Would you like support in this area? Plan to attend the Quaker Parenting workshop brought to Bucks Quarter by the Quaker Parenting Initiative (QPI) and led by Harriet Heath.

Quakerism has much to offer parents as parents search to nurture their children towards responsible adulthood.

* Our Quaker faith has beliefs that can support parents' efforts. The belief for instance that a Way will open supports parents as they see their child experimenting in unhealthy behaviors. The belief in continuing revelation keeps parents trying to stay open to understanding this child they love so well.

* The Testimonies set guides for our parenting. How to live simply in a society based on materialism? Does the Peace Testimony hold any meaning to how we interact with each other within the family?

* And Quaker practices offer parents so much. Just using queries rather than "shoulds" encourages parents to think through what they want for their children.

These are some of the Quaker strengths we will explore with parents in our discussion sessions as parents pursue their own individual issues. Parents attending the series learn about Quakerism and/or become more aware of the meaning of our faith for our everyday lives.

The web site, www.quakerparenting.org has other information about what the Quaker Parenting Initiative has to offer parents.

The six sessions are scheduled to begin on January 23rd and will run from 1-3pm (bring a brown bag lunch) location will either be the Buckingham, Yardley, or Wrightstown meetinghouses.

There is a fee for the sessions so the more parents signing up, the cheaper it gets! If 20 families (couples) sign up it will only be $30 per family (total fee is $600 split between the attendees). Do not stay away for lack of funds.

Please register by calling or emailing Holly Olson, : 215-860-9747 or hollybqc@verizon.net

There will be childcare available and those providing childcare will be paid $10 per hour (please let Holly know if your teen is led to provide child care).

DOYLESTOWN MEETING SPEAKERS SERIES

On January 23rd at 2PM, Doylestown Friends Meeting will host a panel to discuss Understanding Islam & Muslim Americans. Zulfiqar, Law and Public Policy Fellow at The Annenberg Center for Global Communication Studies; and David Brahinsky, Professor of Philosophy and Comparative Religion at Bucks County Community College. Barbara Simmons, director of The Bucks County Peace Center, will moderate.

THE BUCKS QUARTER SINGING GROUP ROCKS THE HOUSE!!

For more than 15 years, Makefield Meeting has hosted a fellowship group for hymn singing. We begin with worship and then through our time together we choose hymns intuitively, sometimes old favorites, sometimes making our way through new songs that over time become favorites. It is fun and inspiring, and our spirits are always lifted leaving us grateful and refreshed.

We would love to have your voice added to mix! You don't have to be able to read music to join us, you just have to like singing. We are not a choir, just a group of Friendly people who come together for worship and singing.

Everybody is welcome!

The group meets every fourth Thursday of the month at 7:30 pm at Makefield Friends meetinghouse, which is located at 877 Dolington Road in Newtown. Our next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, January 23, 2011.

For more information, please contact Holly Olson at hollybqc@verizon.net.
