QUAKER DECISION MAKING ~ IT'S A CURIOUSLY SPIRITUAL THING

with Arthur Larrabee

January 20th, Buckingham Meetinghouse

1:00PM to 4:30PM

Are you a meeting attender or member? Does our decision making process confound or sometimes frustrate you? Do you wonder how spirit fits into new bench cushions, a graveyard wall repair or the rental of one of our buildings? Why can't we just vote? What's the difference between sense of the meeting and consensus...we do not make decisions by consensus by the way.

If you answered, "yes" to any of those questions then this workshop is for you. Bucks Quarterly Meeting is pleased to present a workshop led by Arthur Larrabee. This workshop is specifically designed for those in the body in order to understand our process.

Some of the things we will explore are the theoretical and practical aspects of Friends decision-making, advantages of the process, sense-of-the-meeting, standing aside, unity, what happens when unity is elusive, the role of those present, the role of the clerk and dysfunctions found in the use of the process.

Arthur Larrabee is member and former Clerk of Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, former General Secretary and former Clerk for Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Ask anyone who has been to one of his workshops at Pendle Hill and they will tell you that you should not miss this opportunity.

The timing for the workshop is conveniently scheduled so that you may worship at your home meeting and make it to Buckingham in time. It's fine if you are a little late.

You are welcome to join Buckingham Friends in worship at 10:30/singing begins at 10:15. There is always a pot luck lunch at the rise of meeting. Bring a dish to share if you will be joining Friends for lunch.

PYM SESSIONS COORDINATING COMMITTEE NEEDS YOUR HELP!

A Note From The Clerk

The PYM Sessions Coordinating Committee needs your help. We are looking for folks young and old, in school, working and retired, representing all of our diversity to be a part of our committee. We need folks who care for the future of our Yearly Meeting.

We have a good, if small committee at the moment that meets mostly via Zoom conference call Monthly to do our work. We need help. Our scheduled meetings are Dec. 9, Jan. 13, Feb. 10, Mar. 10, April 14, May 12, June 9, and July 14, usually from 7 pm- 8:30 pm. Often we have staff and clerk participation and have rich time with our work.

Some of us choose to join task subgroups to augment the work. We sometimes have physical meetings, such as site visits at our Annual and Continuing Sessions locations, but that is by choice of the committee member.

I intend to serve as clerk for at least two more years, and would invite others to join me for that period of time or longer. We hope to have several Middle School, Young and Young Adult Friends join us, so please remember to speak to every part of your Quarter with this invitation.

Thanks,

Wade Wright

This letter below is shared with us by Beth Taylor (Plumstead MM) and was written by her daughter. Those present at Quarterly Meeting in November felt it was important to share this with the quarter.

Background of the letter:

At our Meeting, a mother confided that her eleven year old daughter was having a hard time dealing with the Pittsburgh killings and was feeling as she weren't really safe, at school, at Meeting . . . And so I reached out to my daughter, Mia Pisano, who teaches in Portland, Oregon, and dealt with a similar situation with one of her students (Sunny) and her Mother ( Joy), after two men were stabbed on a MAX train as they tried to defend a teenager in a hijab.

Mia's words still apply to children and families everywhere who feel vulnerable and scared, sometimes, especially in this climate. I gave the letter to our Friend at meeting and she asked Mia if she could she it on and of course, she said yes.

Mia grew up In Doylestown Meeting, was a member at Albuquerque Meeting and now attends Multnomah meeting in Portland. She is also a graduate of Camp Onas and George School.

Dear Joy,

I have been reflecting on your concern about Sunny learning of the murders on the MAX train. You are right to be deeply concerned, but not about how this knowledge will affect Sunny. Your true and valid concern is about what life will be like for our children as they grow up and come of age in a political climate that many of us thought had been consigned to history.

Young children do not understand the permanence of death, and so they do not feel the gravity of the deaths in the same way that we will. What they do feel, more than anyone's words, is how you carry yourself through this, and beyond. Children have the capacity to witness their adults feeling grief, fear, anger, pain, sorrow. What children need to see is their adults living through those feelings, and choosing actions that move them forward.

We want to shield them from the enormity of the horrors of the world, but we do so less by filtering what they hear, and more by being living shields in how we live our lives. When we respond with our genuine, empathetic selves, always reaching toward goodness, even when it seems unattainable, we give them the strength to do the same.

In response to violence, children may have specific fears: Is it safe to ride the train? Do bullies always have big knives? Is it safe to go to church? Your actions will show them the answers more powerfully than any words. Own your fears, and stay in the world. Stand up to bullying when you see it. Ask for help when you need help. Give help when others need help.

There is very little information that children cannot safely absorb from the carefully chosen words of a loving adult. Other forms of experience have different impacts: watching traumatic events on video makes a much deeper and more difficult impression, and of course, children experience terrible trauma every day, in war, and poverty, and injustice.

All over the world, every minute, parents find ways to do everything they can to keep their children safe, even – especially - in the most impossible circumstances. Sometimes it is enough. Sometimes, those children grow up so secure in the heart of goodness that they do not hesitate to step into danger.

I hope that these thoughts are able to put your mind at ease somewhat, at least about how your children will be affected by hearing about things that they really don't need to know. I wish I could offer much greater re-assurances. I do believe that striving toward goodness, justice, and love, while it may not fix the world, is the only way to find peace in ourselves.

Love,
Mia
