MIDDLETOWN MEETINGHOUSE

Moving Into Mindfulness with Amy Ward Brimmer

Body-mind awareness opens us up to direct revelation, whether in worship or while doing the dishes. In this brief introductory experience, we'll explore the ways that everyday movement is worship and worship contains movement. How do we sustain our spiritual power with open bodies and minds when we encounter "real life" and all its busy action? In the rush of daily activity, we can learn to pause, reconnect to our amazing body-minds, and continue moving forward with a new sense of centeredness. Using the principles of the Alexander Technique, we will learn to recognize some cues about our habitual ways of reacting and leave with a strategy or two to apply under stressful or challenging situations. Together, we'll be gentle and compassionate while also challenging ourselves to try new types of thoughtful motion. For more information about Amy's work and the Alexander Technique, visit www.wayopenscenter.com.

“Open Our Eyes That We May See”

PILGRIMAGE OF

EL CAMINO DE SANTIAGO, SPAIN

TENTATIVE DATES: SEPTEMBER 18-28, 2015

Join our small group (15 persons maximum) as we explore the 1000-year old pilgrimage route known as El Camino de Santiago. Walking El Camino is a journey of a lifetime and brings together history, extraordinary scenic beauty, and exceptional Spanish cuisine. This 70-mile walk is at a snail’s pace and with the support of a fully loaded van when you want it. We explore the little known pilgrimage route from Santiago de Compostela to Muxia and Finisterra, following the magnificent coastline of Galicia. Leaving the hustle & bustle of the city, the route passes through rural landscapes of high plateaus, forested tracks, country villages, and the reward of stunning coastal trails and headlands where the pace slows to that of centuries of sea faring life.

Accommodations are delightful country inns and include most breakfasts and dinners, as well as wine, during the walk, expert guides, pre-departure materials, including reading and packing list, full van support.
