Also featured are a "For Kids, By Kids" flea market selling gently used children's clothing, toys, books and videos.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PROGRAMS
EXCITING PLANS FOR QUARTERLY MEETING

In an effort to attract more families and children to Quarterly Meeting sessions, clerks and co-clerks of Religious Education committees met on August 21st at Buckingham Meeting. These clerks and co-clerks serve for the Meetings who will host our Quarterly Meeting sessions over the next year. The group met to develop a theme that will run for the year.

The theme is, Bucks Food For Friends (BFFF) and the need for greater awareness of those less fortunate in our local communities. Please bring food pantry donations to Quarterly Meeting. There will be a special donation request in August, see below.

The goal is that a year-long cohesive plan will become customary in Bucks Quarter. Some of the ripples that this plan will create are that our children discover Friendly communities that span beyond their Monthly Meetings and into our Yearly Meeting Middle School Friends, Young Friends and Young Adult Friends programs.

Tentative Schedule Follows:

Middle School and Young Friends will have the option to participate in the programs below, stay with the adults or choose from a third option which hasn't had all the bugs worked out yet... :-)

November 16 at Solebury Meeting: Bring Nonperishable Donations for Local Food Pantry

Invite two representatives from the BFFF committee to talk about the project.

Make fliers for Food Pantries about BFFF. Make posters for each Meeting about BFFF.

Make fliers for grocery stores reminding customers to buy extras and donate to their local food pantry.

February 15 at Wrightstown Meeting: Bring Nonperishable Donations for Local Food Pantry

Invite one of the Volunteer Coordinators from BFFF to talk about how kids can help.

BFFF folks to bring lots of copies of pictures of how BFFF looks in operation.

Make collages with the pictures to go back to MM's as a reminder of BFFF.

May 17 at Yardley Meeting: Bring Nonperishable Donation for Local Food Pantry

Invite Cooking Coordinator for BFFF and Support Cooks to talk about nutrition in general and the foods prepared for guests of BFFF

Put together nutritious snack bags for children at the Red Cross Homeless Shelter

August 23 at Buckingham Meeting: Bring Pet Food Donations for Local Animal Shelter

Nancy Winthrop, Resource Development Coordinator for BFFF to talk about fund raising and food raising.

Bring Your Pet –

Representative from the Bucks County SPCA to speak on the impact the present economy is having on pets.

Does anyone know someone affiliated with the Bucks County SPCA??

Please contact Holly Olson

QUAKER QUEST...WHAT'S THE BUZZ?

If you're interested in forming a Bucks Quarter Quaker Quest Committee (BQQQC), email Holly Olson hollybqc@verizon.net or Kellie Schluskel-Edens, clerk for the BQ Outreach Committee at visualdiva@yahoo.com.

The Coordinator and Quarter's Outreach Committee will support the activities of the BQQQC, but has too few members to be charged with the responsibility. For a complete understanding of what's involved, plan to attend Quaker Quest Consultation Day. See below.

QUAKER QUEST CONSULTATION DAY

Oct. 25th from 9:30 a.m. -4:30 p.m. - the Quaker Quest Consultation Day will be held at the Arch Street Meetinghouse. Quaker Quest (QQ), the successful inreach/outreach program that began six years ago in Great Britain, has come to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Friends General Conference has the responsibility of administering QQ across the US and Canada. The Quaker Quest Working Group of PYM's Support and Outreach Standing Committee will oversee the program's growth throughout our Yearly Meeting. Friends will learn of the success of Quaker Quest in Great Britain from one of its developers, experience sample portions of a typical QQ session, and receive information about how to begin a Quaker Quest journey. Come and learn how Quaker Quest helps us to deepen our own faith while reaching out to others who do not know us.
