MARCH SESSIONS OF PHILADELPHIA YEARLY MEETING (US!)

March Sessions of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting "Living Up to the Light" will take place on March 27-29, 2008 at the Arch Street Meeting House. Our Yearly Meeting will gather in March for worship, fellowship, and business. There are important issues for discernment and decision before Yearly Meeting and we will take our next steps together. Key business items for March Sessions include: • Follow-up Action from the Gathering on Peace (January, 2009) • The Interim Meeting Governance report: consideration and decision • The continuing discernment of our Yearly Meeting priorities • Burning Concerns that arise from Monthly and Quarterly Meetings.

We will also be blessed to hear from the following speakers:

Amanda Kemp is the founder of Theatre for Transformation, Mary Ellen McNish is the General Secretary of the American Friends Service Committee singer-songwriter Madi Diaz of Central Philadelphia Meeting

Further details including schedule, registration, meals, lodging, and youth programs are available at <http://www.pym.org/annualsessions> or contact Sessions Coordinator, Michael Gagne at 215-241-7238 or michealg@pym.org.

Come because you want to worship with Friends and because all members "should feel under the weight of duty to attend the annual sessions" and because we work hard to make Sessions accessible and because our light is greater when we share it and because the Yearly Meeting is YOU!

Please spread the word in your Meeting. A limited number of rooms for lodging are on reserve at the Holiday Inn next to the meetinghouse. Call 215-923-8660.
