PEACE MEDITATION AT NEWTOWN MEETING

Last October, Newtown Friends Meeting hosted a break-the-fast vegetarian meal and discussion following a daylong Fast to End the War in Iraq. The Fast was called for by two prominent Jewish rabbis, and the congregation Tzedek v'Shalom which meets at the meetinghouse. The meeting was asked if they wanted to become involved. The answer was yes, and a group of people from all over the region and of many faiths came to end their fast at Newtown Meeting on October 9th. There was a wonderful sense of fellowship and purpose, and a strong desire to keep a "meditation practice" in our schedules: with a goal to end the war in Iraq and encourage interfaith participation. Making change in the world from the "inside out" is the theme. For questions or directions, call Norma Kaplis at 267-237-2232. In our busy lives, it takes a "special" intention and dedication to meditate for peace on a regular basis. For those of us who feel it can make a difference, we call you to join us.
