He started by recording everything that was at the site of Lake Nockamixon, and then expanded. His collection of over 4000 slides includes old houses and school and barns and bridges - and meetinghouses! Jack Fox, who was a member of Doylestown Meeting, and very active with the Hilltown Historical Society, ensured their safe storage over the years. With thanks to his wife Elyse, a member of Plumstead Meeting, Plumstead Friends have the meetinghouse slides available to them to share with us!
