THE BUCKS QUARTER PEACE FAIR MARK YOUR CALENDARS

The planning for the 2016 Bucks Quarter Peace Fair is in full swing and many hands make the work light and joyful. There are lots of areas for you to lend a hand for a few hours before, during or after the fair. Greeters, games, crafts, book sale and the Quaker information table are just a few areas during the fair where you can help.

If you served as Greeter in the Bucks Quarter tent at the Grange Fair, your skills are especially needed at the BQ tent and tile table, also to serve as Greeters at the entrance to the fair.

To volunteer contact: Peter Ray at peter.ray@comcast.net or

NEW PYM COLLABORATIVES

The PYM Quaker Life Council has approved two collaboratives. The Spiritual Formation Collaborative and Supporting Individual Ministries Collaborative are groups under the care of the yearly meeting.

Each of these groups will have their own webpages on the website. Periodically new groups will be announced with news articles.

In case you missed it, this article from last month lists all the collaboratives and sprints that have been approved, except the brand new Spiritual Formation and Supporting Individual Ministries collaboratives. Collaboratives are formed by Friends who have a common interest or ministry. They are self-organized and self-facilitated and are formed under the care of the Quaker Life Council through a process established by the Council. Collaboratives reach out to Friends in all meetings to form a focused community across worship groups, monthly meetings, or quarterly meetings. By definition, each Collaborative will include Friends from several different meetings.
